Introduction

In building a house you have to first put down the foundations on which it will stand. In this book, the Four Doctrines, first published in 1763, Emanuel Swedenborg provides the basis for all the theology and teaching that are to be found and developed elsewhere throughout his spiritual writings. It is a summary.

The four foundation teachings concern:

- ▶ The Lord
- ▶ The Word or Sacred Scripture
- ▶ Life, and
- ▶ Faith.

They are set down and worked through systematically, providing an outline of what each teaching needs to cover.

A significant feature of the Four Doctrines is the extent of biblical references and quotations that are used to illustrate and support each teaching. These can sometimes run to several pages. Their purpose is to show that the text of the Bible itself, on the surface and without interpretation, presents and contains true teachings about God, revelation and life. Swedenborg says that the Word is in its completeness, holiness and power in the way in which it is written. The examples that are used strongly support this teaching, often surprisingly so.

Content of Book and Reading Approach

Here is a summary of the contents of each of the four doctrines:

- ▶ We would not know about God or life after death without the Word

Relevance Today

Many people long for clear teachings concerning the nature of God, the work of Jesus Christ, the meaning of the Bible and what goes to make a satisfying spiritual life. Swedenborg's Four Doctrines addresses the essential issues involved in these areas of Christian belief and draws together conclusions, using numerous biblical quotes, presenting a connected whole.

Invitation

If you have found Christian teachings about God and life to be unhelpful or confusing, this book will provide a new and completely Bible-based approach.

Quotations

From The Lord paragraph 2

These passages show that the Lord is the eternal God; and that this God is the Lord who came into the world.

From The Word paragraph 57

Enlightenment only comes from the Lord and we have it when we love the truth because it is true and when we use it in our life.

From Life paragraph 13

The essence of good can only come from God who is Good Itself, and from nowhere else.

From Faith paragraph 3

We can understand spiritual truths just as much as we can understand natural truths.
