Correspondences
Made Easy
Presented by David Moffat

Emanuel Swedenborg, a renowned Swedish investigator of the sciences, quietly put into print a unique key to enable men and women to understand the secrets of human existence. He was able to do this following a series of spiritual experiences in the mid-1750s which led him to study the Bible as a psychological treatise than simply a historical and literal text. This key also has application with other ancient sacred texts, dreams and the natural kingdoms for discovering our inner states and processes.

Swedenborg's Science of Correspondences is integral to the world in which we live and to our experience of life. Newcomers to Swedenborg's work often wrestle with the complexity of his writing, and especially as he expounds the hidden meanings of the Bible. But anyone can appreciate the core principles of correspondences as easily as we navigate our daily lives, relationships and language. This session will show you how.

David Moffat, a New Church (Swedenborgian) Spiritual Leader living in Canberra will be the speaker for the evening. We look forward to warmly welcoming David to the meeting. There will be plenty of time for questions and discussion.
